

Albert Diaz-Silveira, Partner

Albert Diaz-Silveira is a corporate lawyer with depth of experience and a practical, value-added approach for helping clients find solutions that meet their business objectives.

Albert's practice includes international business transactions, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, private equity, privatizations, and strategic partnership agreements.

Albert has extensive experience negotiating, documenting and advising clients in connection with mergers and acquisitions, joint venture agreements, financings and a broad range of corporate agreements, including operating agreements, stockholders' agreements, strategic partnership agreements, and employment and consulting agreements.

He has represented clients in connection with corporate matters in a wide range of industries, including manufacturing, energy, aviation, distribution and healthcare both domestically and abroad. Prior to founding Alvarez Arrieta & Diaz-Silveira LLP, Albert was Counsel with the international law firm of White & Case LLP, where he represented corporations, investors, entrepreneurs and financial institutions and advisors on a broad spectrum of corporate transactions.

Albert believes pragmatic strategies that build business relationships are critical to client success, whether providing sophisticated business counsel to his clients, managing a team of legal professionals or working with opposing counsel.

Albert has an AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rating, the highest rating awarded by Martindale-Hubbell®.
